The background of the image features a pixelated, light purple version of the University of Cambridge crest. The crest is circular, with a shield in the center. The shield is divided into four quadrants, each containing a book. Above the shield is an open book, and below it is a cross. The words "UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE" are written in a circular path around the shield. The text "Have Fun!" is superimposed over the center of the crest.

Have Fun!
